

Vocabulary

List 10

The Word:	Remember It: (with another word that rhymes, sounds like, or has a similar root)	Explain It: (with a brief explanation and/or synonyms)	Use It: (in a detailed sentence)	Sketch It: (sketch what you wrote in your sentence)
genre (noun)		a category of artistic composition, as in music or literature, having a particular form, content, or technique; category; type; style.	My favorite _____ to read is _____ because of _____.
intolerance (noun)		unwillingness or refusal to tolerate or respect contrary opinions or beliefs, persons of different races or backgrounds, etc.	The neighbor's _____ of the new family's _____ unfortunately made the newcomers feel _____.
desirability (noun)		worthiness of wanting; appeal; attractiveness.	The TV ad enhanced the _____ of the car by making it seem more _____ than it is in real life.
devotion (noun)		profound dedication or commitment to.	The player showed her _____ to the team's success by _____.

The Word:	Remember It: (with another word that rhymes, sounds like, or has a similar root)	Explain It: (with a brief explanation and/or synonyms)	Use It: (in a detailed sentence)	Sketch It: (sketch what you wrote in your sentence)
self-expression (noun)		expression or assertion of one's own personality.	My favorite form of _____ is _____ because _____ _____ _____.
assemble		to gather together in one place.	The best place to _____ after school is _____ because _____ _____ _____.
diversity		variety; multiplicity	The _____ of the group helped us solve the problem because _____ _____ _____.
pursuit		the effort to secure or acquire; striving toward; questing after.	To achieve my important goal, I am in _____ of _____ _____ _____.	